

Christmas Break

At LEWTRENCHARD MANOR

Arrive on Christmas Eve to the warmest of welcomes, followed by a festive Devonshire cream tea which is served between 3.00pm and 5.00pm in the Hall. Relax in front of one of our log fires with a good book or join Mrs Murray on a History Tour of the house at 4.30pm. Don't forget to take part in 'Guess the Weight of Chef's Christmas Cake' game that will take place in reception - whoever gets the closest wins a festive goodie. At 7.00pm, on the gallery, the Kelly Choral Society carol singers will entertain you during a champagne and canapés reception, before we serve our black tie gala dinner in the oak panelled dining room which starts at 8.00pm. If you would like to attend Midnight Mass at the nearby St Peters Church, which is within walking distance, there will be a warm glass of mulled wine and hot mince pies on your return to the hotel.

On Christmas Day, between 12 noon and 2.00pm, we will be serving Chef's traditional five course Christmas lunch with all the trimmings, using only the South West's finest ingredients and vegetables from our very own kitchen garden produced by Martin, the gardener. Choose to sit at individual tables or with fellow guests for lively conversation. Spend the afternoon relaxing by the fires or taking a stroll in our pretty grounds, followed later by tea and Christmas cake. In the evening a relaxed supper will be served, followed by Mrs Murray's Christmas Quiz (you will never guess what on!) and charades for those who would like to join in for some fun and laughter. The announcement of the Christmas cake weight will be made and the winner crowned!

Enjoy Boxing Day morning either relaxing or taking part in our treasure hunt searching for clues in house and garden, followed by a light lunch. In the afternoon we have arranged for clay pigeon shooting in our grounds, for those who wish to take part, which will build up an appetite for our Boxing Day finale. This starts with a Drinks Reception on the gallery, followed by our informal Boxing Day dinner where you will be entertained by our pianist

On your final morning enjoy a leisurely breakfast and then relax by the fires with coffee and biscuits before departure.
